

K-LOVE is a source of encouragement to me in our community.
There is nothing else like K-LOVE in our area and if it were displaced by a lpfm it would be a loss to myself, my family, and many others in the area, as it provides daily encouragement and positive programming.
K-LOVE is in the public interest because it supports and encourages the family values that this country was founded upon.